LUTHERAN BIBLE CLASS
HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET

More Than 200 Attend Celebration at
 Keller Memorial—Maj. Raymond
 W. Pullman pres.

The eighth annual banquet of the Men's Bible Class Association of the Lutheran Church was held in Keller Memorial Lutheran Sunday School building last night. More than 200 persons attended and listened to short addresses on church work by ministers and laymen. Rev. S. T. Nicholas, acted as toastmaster. Among the speakers were Maj. Raymond Pullman, Rev. E. Everett Granger, Rev. F. M. McCoy and others. Charles N. Black, J. H. Calvert, and Joseph Rosner rendered a musical program. Major Pullman, taking the subject, "Church and Sunday School Work in the District," told of the great good that is being accomplished through the influence of men's Bible classes. When a twelve-inch shell strikes the water it throws up a "splash" higher than a battleship's mast. This splash weighs about 2,000 tons, enough to drown a small ship.

SCHMIDT PAYS PENALTY.

Ossining, N. Y., Feb. 18.—Hans Schmidt is dead. The unfrocked priest, who murdered his sweetheart, Anna Ammeller, was put to death in the electric chair in Sing Sing prison, shortly before 6 o'clock this morning.

"I send a hearty goodbye to my mother, my friends and to all of you. Goodbye, all friends."

These were the former priest's last words. He was one of the bravest men ever electrocuted in Sing Sing. With a firm step he walked to his death house. On his way to the chair he asked forgiveness from all he had "offended or scandalized," and in turn forgave all who had offended him.

Would Lift Stigma from Children
 The Senate District committee yesterday ordered a favorable report on the House bill emancipating from disabilities of citizenship delinquent children sentenced to the District Juvenile Court.

WILL RELAY WIRELESS TO PRESIDENT WILSON

W. A. Parks to Convey Washington's Birthday Message from White House to White House.

In the early hours of Tuesday morning there will be flashed to all parts of the United States a wireless message in commemoration of the birthday of Washington.

W. A. Parks, 1220 Jackson street northeast, an enthusiastic amateur radio operator, will catch the message at the station at his residence and convey it immediately to President Wilson at the White House.

The message will originate at the Rock Island Arsenal at Rock Island, Ill., and will be relayed by amateurs throughout the country to the governors of every State and the mayors of every large city. The message will be started promptly at midnight on Monday and will be sent under auspices of the American Radio Relay League.

RED CROSS SEALS PLANNED.

More Than 300,000,000 Stickers to Be Prepared for Christmas.

Representatives of the principal organizations of the American Red Cross in the States and cities throughout the country met yesterday afternoon at national headquarters, 1824 H street, to exchange ideas regarding the 1916 Christmas seal and to propose suggestions which might affect its alteration.

At yesterday's meeting the nature of the contracts for printing the seal was determined and the output approximated. Last year the total sale of stamps was 350,000,000. The estimates this year call for a supply of 300,000,000, although many more are expected to be disposed of.

Age Limit for Licenses Lowered.
 The age limit for the issuance of marine licenses has been lowered from 21 to 19 years by the Steamboat Inspection Service of the Department of Commerce. The action was taken at a meeting of the board of supervising inspectors here yesterday, and approved by Secretary of Commerce Redfield.

WOMAN WRITERS HOLD MEETING AT RALEIGH

National Association Hears Informal Talks by Congressmen at Its Monthly Gathering.

With several prominent visitors, including Mrs. Olive Lee, State vice president of Texas, Mrs. Cora Bacon Foster, and members of Congress attending, the monthly meeting of the Women's National Press Association was held in the Oak Room of the Hotel Raleigh last night. Informal talks were made by Representatives Sherwood, of Ohio, and Cooper, of Wisconsin. Mrs. Grace Porter Hopkins, first vice president, presided.

An excellent musical program was rendered by Mrs. Lenore Sherwood, Mrs. Charles Bennett Smith, and Mrs. Edward P. Smith. The association, which is one of the oldest women's organizations, founded in 1882, will give a breakfast upon the return of Mrs. Mary Lockwood, president, from Florida.
